NAME

The name of the Association shall be the Association of Media Women in Kenya (AMWIK) hereinafter referred to as AMWIK or the Association.

REGISTERED ADDRESS

The registered address of the Association shall be at Mbaruk Road, off Muchai Drive, Nairobi; P.O Box 10327-00100 Nairobi, E-mail: info@amwik.org or shall be located at such a place and entail such description including telephone and other digital addresses as the Board may from time to time approve by resolution.

VISION

A gender-responsive society that embraces and promotes equitable development and women's rights.

MISSION

- To influence the media sector in Kenya to promote and safeguard the full enjoyment of women's and girls' rights in society and advance their status in the media through the harnessing of the power of women using media.
- To advance issues that affect women including equality, opportunities, empowerment, and the promotion of sustained inclusive, dignified economic and professional growth for women in journalism and communication.
- Recognizing that equal rights and equal opportunities for both, men, and women, are fundamental human rights, to reduce inequalities in and within the media and communication professions, promote inclusivity, equitable, dignified non-discriminatory access to and coverage within media,
- To advocate for, support, and promote effective, accountable, inclusive, and equitable opportunities for its members, and professionals in media and communications professions.

OBJECTIVES

- To promote and safeguard women's rights, notably the rights to freedom of media and access to information, as fundamental pillars of a society that is fair and just.
- To create an informed and resourceful society through professional development and transformation of the media to enhance the status of women.
- To end discrimination, marginalization, and exclusion within, and foster diversity in the media, with special emphasis to the inclusion of women.
- To build the capacities of women to effectively utilize the potential of the media to highlight their concerns, promote relevant causes, and highlight matters that relate to women.
- To foster understanding of issues affecting women using the media.
- To organize and unite women in media and media-related in fellowship within the Association, with similar minded and with beneficial linkages elsewhere.
- To make innovative use of media to promote the status of women in society.

CORE VALUES

The values of the Association are:

- Responsibility - We hold each other accountable for delivering the promise of AMWIK and encourage accountability, transparency and responsible decision making at all levels.
- Teamwork - We recognize the diversity and intersectionality of our membership and of the wider community we serve, and encourage individual, corporate, and collegial contributions, with everyone working toward the same objectives
- Integrity - We always act consistently with our principles regardless of the short-term benefits or external pressures.
- Justice & fairness - We evaluate, and reward individuals objectively based on their contributions towards accomplishing our mission.
- Equity – We treat all persons with fairness, equity and impartiality including all members, staff, partners, and other stakeholders of AMWIK
- Inclusivity – We encourage diversity and work to actively encourage and hold the spaces for all members, staff, stakeholders, and project participants to use their voice, participate in decision-making and act without discrimination.
- Non-partisan- Recognizing and respecting the diversity of our membership, we are non-political, and nonpartisan.
